

Prerequisites for execution of revised/supplementary locker agreement

As per Reserve Bank of India direction and for the benefit of the customer, all the existing locker hirers who have availed locker facility from the Bank on or before April 21, 2023 have to submit the revised or supplementary agreement as per applicability.

Following are the documents which are required for executing the revised or supplementary locker agreement:

Serial No	Document description	Availability	Requirement of Stamp paper
1	Covering letter for execution of revised/supplementary agreement	Format available in Bank's website or can also be obtained from branch.	Stamp paper not required
2	Safe Deposit Locker Agreement	Format available in Bank's website or can also be obtained from branch.	Cost of stamp paper of appropriate value applicable as per the Stamp Act of the respective State to be borne by the locker hirer.
3	Supplementary Locker Agreement	Format available in Bank's website or can also be obtained from locker availed branch.	Cost of the stamp paper will be borne by the Bank.
4	Any other requirements	No	Not applicable

Note:

1. Supplementary Locker Agreement is applicable for the locker hirers who have already executed the revised locker agreement as per RBI circular no DOR.LEG.REC/40/09.07.005/2021-22) dated August 18, 2021. For others revised safe Deposit Locker Agreement as per RBI circular no-RBI/2022-23/168 CO.CEPD.PRS.No.S1233/13-01-018/2022-2023 dated January 23, 2023, is applicable.
2. All the locker holder(s) to be present in person at the branch or customer has to sign in the documents in presence of bank official.